

Panasonic & EPLAN

A STRONG COOPERATION FOR GLOBAL ENGINEERING

Integrating Panasonic products made simple.

Panasonic automation products now available in the EPLAN Data Portal

Panasonic Electric Works Europe AG is a global provider for automation products. Apart from a large product range comprising sensors, PLCs, touch panels, and servo drives, Panasonic offers solutions that allow designers and users to integrate Panasonic's products in a comfortable and efficient way.

It is with this goal in mind that from now on the technical data of Panasonic products are available in the Data Portal of EPLAN. Here, customers can access technical features and specifications of the various Panasonic products in a fast and easy manner.

FP7 series

- Lighting control system
- Analog control (high-speed temperature control)
- Visualization of energy consumption in manufacturing plants
- Monitoring energy consumption of buildings

FP0R series

- Labelers
- Controlling robots and machines with up to 4 axes
- Packaging machines
- Food packaging
- Remote maintenance for water management (wastewater treatment plants, wells, water storage tanks)
- Remote maintenance and energy management

EPLAN – efficient engineering.

Customer benefits

EPLAN is an efficient project engineering system and is used as the default search tool by many people worldwide. This is why EPLAN's Data Portal is an outstanding solution for Panasonic as a globally active manufacturer of automation products to offer customers an even better service.

As a global player with a brand of world-wide renown Panasonic is an excellent complement to the existing product range in the EPLAN Data Portal. Especially customers of both Panasonic and EPLAN profit from the integration of Panasonic's device data, which can be used digitally and efficiently for engineering purposes.

What EPLAN offers

EPLAN's Data Portal provides web-based device and article data on a worldwide level. Currently, more than 110 manufacturers of components are represented with specifications for half a million of products. The portal is deeply integrated into the EPLAN platform, making the information available directly for engineering. Already more than 92,000 users around the globe access the electronic product catalogs in the portal when designing circuit diagrams.
